Decline Awards

To decline an award indicate with an X or ✓ in the Decline column next to the awards you are declining and return this form to the financial aid office. Please mark only those offered awards that appear in your award notification letter.

If you decline federal work study, please indicate whether you want a Stafford loan instead by circling YES or NO. If you circle YES, we will check your eligibility for a Stafford loan or an increase in a Stafford loan you already have. If you are eligible, we will provide the extra amount.

If you decline a Stafford or PLUS loan now and your situation changes, you may later request that they be reinstated. Honoring a change of request on the other awards after initial declining will depend on availability of funds.
