How to Find Articles

You can find articles by using OneVU or you can access one of our many databases geared towards general or specific subjects. A great way to start your research is to go to "Databases A-Z" and choose a general database like "Academic Search Premier". You can also choose a specialty database, which are sorted by college. You'll find databases for your program under "Humanities Databases" located on our Find Articles page. Below is a search example using Academic Search Premier.

Recommended Databases

Academic Search Premier: A great starting point for any type of research. Access to 3,900 full-text peer reviewed journals and 4,600 total full text journals on topics from all academic disciplines.

Credo Reference: Full-text articles from nearly 800 reference eBooks on topics including: art, food & beverage, language, medicine, psychology, social sciences, biographies, geography, law, music, religion, technology, business, history, literature, philosophy, and science.

Gale Virtual Reference Library: Collection of Reference eBooks on topics including: the arts, biographies, business, education, environment, history, law, literature, medicine, multicultural studies, nation & world, religion, social sciences, science, and technology.

Humanities Full Text: This database provides full text, abstracts and bibliographic indexing of the most noted scholarly sources in the humanities, as well as specialized magazines.

ProQuest Research Library: A good starting point for research on any topic. Provides access to over 3,600 full-text journals on topics including: the arts, business, education, health and medical, humanities, law, military, multicultural studies, psychology, sciences, social sciences, and women's studies.

Exercise I.

Advanced Searching Using OneVU

On the library home page, go to the OneVU search box at the top of the page.

Click the Advanced Search link located in the lower left-hand corner.

Using the different search options, perform a search that finds peer-reviewed articles that are:

- About “Freud”
- Were written after 2010
- Are in English

How many search results do you get?

Exercise II.

Research Databases

Research databases are electronic resources used for finding scholarly journal articles, magazine articles, newspaper articles, and other information that has been published in periodicals. You can skip the OneVU Discovery Tool if you desire to search a specific, familiar resource.

Access the VU Libraries website.

Click the Databases A-Z link.

Select the Academic Search Premier database from the list.

Search for “Nietzsche” by typing your topic in the first search textbox.

Click the Search button.

How many results did you retrieve? ____________________________________________

In the sidebar to the left you will see the limiters that are available (HINT: All databases offer limiters to help you manage your search results). Under Limit To, select Scholarly (Peer Reviewed) Journals, and under Source Types, limit your results to Academic Journals.

Use the Publication Date slider bar to limit your results to 2010-2017.

How many results? ____________________________________________

Limit your results again by selecting Full Text under Limit To. Select one full text article from your search results. Provide the following information about that article:
Exercise III.

Reliable Sources

Using library resources gives you the benefit of selecting reliable sources for your assignments, unlike using Google to search the Internet. What are some reasons you believe your article is reliable? (Reasons might include: What is the article’s purpose—to present scholarly research, inform, or persuade? Are other credible sources cited? Are the author's credentials mentioned? Is the journal peer-reviewed?)
